

טֵיִת

Teit

Pronunciation:	T as in title.
Numerical Value:	תֵּשַׁע Teisha (Nine), תְּשִׁיעִי Sh'mini (Eighth)
Path (in Bereishit):	11. Elohim called the dry land earth.
Group:	Elemental
Phonetic Family:	Lingual
Meanings:	Goodness (tov). Serpent. Staff. Mud.
Application:	Enjoy a time of conception and gestation. Shed what needs to be let go of. Cultivate the creative power of the feminine and the potent power of the masculine.
Shadow:	Overemphasizing goodness.
Reflection:	What do I need to shed in order to make way for new life?
Suggested Action:	Plant a seed. Then, protect and nurture it as it gestates and sprouts.

The Creator made the letter Teit sovereign over Hearing, and bound a crown to it and combined one with another, and with them formed Leo in the Universe, Av in the year, and the Left Kidney in the soul, male and female. -Sefer Yetzilah

References for information in this handout: Sefer Yetzilah, The Zohar, The Oracle of Kabbalah by Richard Seidman.