עֲלֵה אֶל-בֵּיתוֹ גְּבַעַת שְׂאוֹל:

2. Thus said Hashem of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt. 3. And go and strike Amalek, and completely destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox, and sheep, camel and ass. 4. And Saul gathered the people together, and counted them in Telaim, two hundred thousand men on foot, and ten thousand men of Judah. 5. And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and laid wait in the valley. 6. And Saul said to the Kenites, Go, depart, get down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them; for you showed kindness to all the people of Israel, when they came out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites. 7. And Saul defeated the Amalekites from Havilah until you come to Shur, that is over opposite Egypt. 8. And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and completely destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. 9. But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not completely destroy them; but every thing that was despised and worthless, that they destroyed completely. 10. Then came the word of Hashem to Samuel, saying, 11. I regret that I have set up Saul to be king; for he is turned back from following me, and has not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried to Hashem all night. 12. And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to Carmel, and, behold, he set him up a monument, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to Gilgal. 13. And Samuel came to Saul; and Saul said to him, Blessed be you of Hashem; I have performed the commandment of Hashem. 14. And Samuel said, What is the meaning then of this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear? 15. And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice to Hashem your Elohim; and the rest we have completely destroyed. 16. Then Samuel said to Saul, Stay, and I will tell you what Hashem has said to me this night. And he said to him, Speak. 17. And Samuel said, When you were little in your own sight, were you not made the chief of the tribes of Israel, and Hashem anointed you king over Israel? 18. And Hashem sent you on a journey, and said, Go and completely destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed. 19. Why then did you not obey the voice of Hashem, but did fly upon the booty, and did evil in the sight of Hashem? 20. And Saul said to Samuel, Indeed, I have obeyed the voice of Hashem, and have gone the way which Hashem sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have completely destroyed the Amalekites. 21. But the people took of the booty, sheep and oxen, the best of the devoted property to sacrifice to Hashem your Elohim in Gilgal. 22. And Samuel said, Has Hashem as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of Hashem? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen better than the fat of rams. 23. For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of Hashem, he has also rejected you from being king. 24. And Saul said to Samuel, I have sinned; for I have transgressed the commandment of Hashem, and your words; because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice. 25. And therefore, I beg you, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship Hashem. 26. And Samuel said to Saul, I will not return with you; for you have rejected the word of Hashem, and Hashem has rejected you from being king over Israel. 27. And as Samuel turned about to go away, he laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it tore. 28. And Samuel said to him, Hashem has torn the kingdom of Israel from you this day, and has given it to a neighbor of yours, who is better than you. 29. And also the Eternal One of Israel will not lie nor change his mind; for he is not a man, that he should change his mind. 30. Then he said, I have sinned; yet honor me now, I beg you, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship Hashem your Elohim. 31. So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped Hashem. 32. Then said Samuel, Bring here to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came to him cheerfully. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past. 33. And Samuel said, As your sword has made women childless, so shall your mother be childless among women. And Samuel cut Agag in pieces before Hashem in Gilgal. 34. Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul.
