Chapter 26

30. And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink. 31. And they rose up in the morning, and took oath with one another; and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace. 32. And it came to pass the same day, that Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had dug, and said to him, We have found water. 33. And he called it Shebah; therefore the name of the city is Beersheba to this day. 34. And Esau was forty years old when he married Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite; 35. And they made life bitter for Isaac and for Rebekah.

Chapter 27

1. And it came to pass, that when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his eldest son, and said to him, My son; and he said to him, Behold, here am I. 2. And he said, Behold now, I am old, I know not the day of my death; 3. Now therefore take, I beg you, your weapons, your quiver and your bow and go out to the field, and catch me some venison; 4. And make me savory food, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat; that my soul may bless you before I die. 5. And Rebekah heard when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it. 6. And Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard your father speak to Esau your brother, saying, 7. Bring me venison, and make me savory food, that I may eat, and bless you before Hashem before my death. 8. Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command you. 9. Go now to the flock, and fetch me from there two good kids of the goats; and I will make them into savory food for your father, such as he loves; 10. And you shall bring it to your father, that he may eat, and that he may bless you before his death. 11. And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man; 12. My father perhaps will feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver; and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing. 13. And his mother said to him, Upon me be your curse, my son; only obey my voice, and go fetch me them. 14. And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother; and his mother made savory food, such as his father loved. 15. And Rebekah took the best garments of her eldest son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son; 16. And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck; 17. And she gave the savory food and the bread, which she had prepared, to the hand of her son Jacob. 18. And he came to his father, and said, My father; and he said, Here am I; who are you, my son? 19. And Jacob said to his father, I am Esau your firstborn; I have done according to what you told me; arise, I beg you, sit and eat of my venison, that your soul may bless me. 20. And Isaac said to his son, How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because Hashem your Eternal One brought it to me. 21. And Isaac said to Jacob, Come near, I beg you, that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not. 22. And Jacob went near to Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau. 23. And he discerned him not, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands; so he blessed him. 24. And he said, Are you really my son Esau? And he said, I am. 25. And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless you. And he brought it near to him, and he ate; and he brought him wine, and he drank. 26. And his father Isaac said to him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son. 27. And he came near, and kissed him; and he smelled the smell of his garment, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field which Hashem has blessed;
