Chapter 32

31. And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel; for I have seen the Eternal One face to face, and my life is preserved. 32. And as he passed over Penuel the sun rose upon him, and he limped upon his thigh. 33. Therefore the people of Israel do not eat of the sinew of the vein, which is in the hollow of the thigh, to this day; because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew of the vein.

Chapter 33

1. And Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, Esau came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children to Leah, and to Rachel, and to the two maidservants. 2. And he put the maidservants and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindermost. 3. And he passed over before them, and bowed to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother. 4. And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and kissed him; and they wept. 5. And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are those with you? And he said, The children whom the Eternal One has graciously given your servant.
